The Barclay Brass is an ensemble comprised of some of Washington DC's top brass musicians. Performers of the highest caliber, Barclay Brass members perform with premier military bands, major symphonies, and are in demand as freelancers all over the country. From the Pope to the President, members of the Barclay Brass have performed for some of the highest profile officials and ceremonies. These musicians created the Barclay Brass for the opportunity to perform a wide variety of classical music arranged specifically for brass instruments. For close to a decade, they have performed diverse genres of music – from patriotic and classical to ceremonial and seasonal – to audiences of all ages.

In 2017, Barclay Brass was part of "The Force at 40", the 40th anniversary celebration of the release of Star Wars, which was held at the Smithsonian's National Air and Space Museum.

In 2018, Barclay Brass was featured in a video produced by TIME magazine and the Smithsonian to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Stanley Kubrick's iconic film "2001: A Space Odyssey." Watch the 360° video here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WJ7Ywiq8bsU>

Committed to education, Barclay Brass traveled to Akron, OH in March of 2019 to work with students at Kent State and the University of Akron. In 2020, the group played a concert and presented a masterclass at George Mason University with internationally renowned composer Johan de Meij, where they performed the North American premiere of arrangements of his own music for brass ensemble and percussion.
